"THE McELHINNEY FOLK"

There is an innate desire in the human breast to trace back, as far as possible, the line of one's ancestral stock; to "look unto the rock whence we were hewn"; and if found worthy to honor the name.

In this laudable desire "The McElhinney Folk" are not different from other folk. It remained, however, for Mrs. Sadie McElhinney Bennett to be the first moving spirit to enthusiastically urge that the history be put into print, and for many early dates we give her credit.

Our knowledge of our ancestral McElhinney stock reaches back a much shorter distance than does the knowledge of many other families of pioneer stock in this country. We know that Margaret, Robert, and Samuel McElhinney were all born in Ireland and that they were married before coming to America, but of their parents, Joseph and Catherine Finley McElhinney, we know little, except their names. Possibly research by someone hereafter, in the Ireland homeland, may reveal something further.

Robert McElhinney and his wife, Nancy (Martin) McElhinney and two children, and Samuel McElhinney and his wife, Ann (Elder) McElhinney, came to the United States in 1827. Robert McElhinney and family went to Sterling, New York, and nine years later moved to Philadelphia; while the Samuel McElhinney family settled in Philadelphia. While in Philadelphia the McElhinneys were members of the First (Covenanter) Reformed Presbyterian Church. The first child of Samuel and Ann McElhinney died before they left Ireland, and Joseph, their second child, was born in Philadelphia, Dec. 10, 1828. The earliest records of the re-organized church in 1833 show that their daughter, Catherine, was baptized in this church Dec. 2, 1834, by the Reverend David Scott, also that their daughter Ann was baptized in this same church May 1, 1838, by the Reverend James M. Willson. The records of the present First Covenanter Church of Philadelphia show that Robert McElhinney and his family came from Sterling, New York, to live in Philadelphia in 1838. Robert and Nancy McElhinney were received into the membership of this church, Jan. 2, 1838; by certificate from the Sterling congregation, of which Reverend William M. Roberts was the pastor. Their sister, Margaret, and her husband, Joseph Cummings, and family came to this country in 1838, and lived eighteen months in Philadelphia.

In April, 1840, after living two years in Philadelphia, Robert McElhinney, his wife, four sons and one daughter, Catherine, and her husband, John Baird, left Philadelphia for the Territory of Iowa. They stopped a few months at Port Louisa, but settled permanently on the banks of Honey Creek in Louisa county. In November, 1840, Samuel McElhinney with his wife and seven children migrated to Iowa, crossing the Mississippi at the village of Burlington. They located two miles west of his brother, Robert, in Des Moines county. One month later their sister, Margaret, with her husband, Joseph Cummings, and family, came, making their home near Virginia Grove. They all journeyed the whole distance in covered wagons.

Here they began the true American Pioneer life. They cut down trees to build log houses, and proved themselves industrious, capable tillers of the soil. The McElhinneys were a religious, God-fearing people; they took literally the promise, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you". Accordingly one of the first things they did was to form "A Society" and hold prayer-meetings in their homes. Recruits, arriving from time to time, were hospitably sheltered in their homes, thus within six years (1846), in the home of Samuel McElhinney, this "Society" was organized into a congregation, now Sharon, by the Illinois Presbytery. This was the first Covenanter Congregation west of the Mississippi river. The first pastor was Reverend J. M. McDonald, 1851-1872. On the whole they were an honest, upright, hard-working, God-fearing people, consequently God blessed and prospered them. Their numbers increased, and when Iowa could no longer hold them, they scattered far and wide, until now their descendants are found from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from Canada to the Gulf. Thus again is God's Word verified --"Trust in the Lord and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed".

McELHINNEY CLAN CELEBRATES CENTENNIAL

Three Hundred Gather at Sharon Church, August 20, 1940

The McElhinney Centennial was held at Sharon Church on Tuesday, August 20, 1940. It celebrated the arrival of three pioneer families in the Territory of Iowa in 1840. Robert McElhinney and his family, his daughter Catherine and her husband, John Baird, were the first to arrive, having travelled from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh in a covered wagon, and by flat boat down the Ohio and up the Mississippi, finally landing at Port Louisa and coming the remainder of the way by wagon. The Samuel McElhinney family and Joseph Cummings and his wife Margaret, a sister of Samuel and Robert McElhinney, came later that same year, bringing their families the entire way in covered wagons.

The relatives of the Sharon Community carefully planned and spared no effort in staging this celebration. A log cabin, erected on the church lawn, served as a registration booth. Around this were early pioneer farming implements, fire arms, household articles and other relics. Chief, of which, was the original ox yoke used by the McElhinneys in breaking the virgin soil. Many of the descendants were dressed in costumes or replicas of those of one hundred years ago. Inside the church were more precious possessions, including a hundred year old piano, a spinning wheel, pieces of homespun, old pictures, books, etc.

Shortly before noon, a covered wagon was sighted coming down the road, a man walking along side and behind a man and woman on horseback, (the woman riding a side-saddle, of course). There was great excitement as the family unloaded, and the "make-believe" arrival of Robert McElhinney and family from Philadelphia officially launched the day's festivities.

The dinner on the church lawn was the traditional big picnic with an abundance of fried chicken, angel food cake and ice cream. Grandchildren of the pioneers sat at a center table which was decorated with tiny spinning wheels, covered wagon, and a replica of the winding Mississippi. The food at this table was served on heirloom dishes and cake plates.

In the afternoon, Lloyd Edgar, program chairman, served as Master of Ceremonies for the program in the church. Mrs. Lela McElhinney Greer led the audience in singing familiar Psalms, and the Reverend James M. McElhinney led in prayer.

Dr. S. E. Greer gave history of the McElhinney families while they lived in Philadelphia, and graphically told of the long tedious journey by wagon and flat boat from Philadelphia to the Territory of Iowa.

Mr. Edgar next introduced Reverend James M. McElhinney, who spoke on "The Old Block", recalling many interesting and humorous incidents concerning his grandfather, Samuel McElhinney. "Chips Off the Old Block" was the next subject with the Reverend T. C. McNight speaking. Then, Mrs. Lela Greer, directing her remarks to the children present, spoke on, "Splinters Off the Chips, Off the Old Block". Mr. Edward Cummings told of watching his grandmother, Catherine Martin Cummings, card the wool, spin the yarn, weave the cloth and tailor him a suit of clothes. Mrs. Mel McElhinney read an original poem depicting the early ancestral history of the McElhinneys. Musical interludes were provided by, Mr. Clarence Hutchins, Mrs. Sam McElhinney, Betty Cummings, and a male quartette composed of, Lloyd Cummings, Paul Caldwell, Maurice Hutcheson, and Wylie Kilpatrick.

The final number on the program was exceptional in its beauty and artistry. It was an album which showed living pictures of the pioneers, bringing to life the old-fashioned bride and groom, the doctor, the girl at the spinning wheel, grandma's former beau, and four generations. Those who posed for these pictures were: Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McElhinney, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pogemiller, Paul Baird, Mary Jane McElhinney, Glen Cummings, John Caldwell, Anna McElhinney, Mrs. J. W. Baird, Mrs. John Robertson, Mrs. Vivian Gardner, and Katherine Gardner. Miss Ethel McElhinney read poetry to explain each picture, and the quartette, accompanied by Mrs. Sam McElhinney, furnished appropriate music.

The three hundred in attendance represented: New York, Pennsylvania, Florida, Ohio, Illinois Indiana, Missouri, Nebraska, Arizona, Colorado, California, with the majority from Iowa. For all present it was a day quite out of the ordinary, setting forth as it did in word, song, poetry, pageantry, and tableau, those historic events of 100 years ago, reaching out of Philadelphia and centering in the Sharon Community, the church that they founded.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The first "McElhinney Family In America" was printed in 1937, under the supervision of:

Mr. Everett Cummings,
Mrs. Tillie McElhinney Caldwell,
Mrs. Annie McElhinney Robb.

To these "pioneer" researchers, the present committee wishes to pay tribute. Their book has been the guiding hand in all the current tracing of the McElhinneys in America.

To recognize all those who have helped in the preparation of this new book would be impossible. We do, however, wish to acknowledge the following:

"The Covenanter Witness", Winchester, Kansas
"The Morning Sun News Herald", Morning Sun, Iowa,
"Robert Reed and Mary Gibson", by Geo. M. Reed,
"John Walkinshaw and Mary Henry", by Geo. M. Reed,
"The Willson Family Tree", by Mrs. Ralph Wilson.

Also, Mrs. D. T. Armstrong, Mrs. R. D. Beltz, Miss Mildred Baird, Mrs. Rodman Baird, Miss Sarah A. Baird, Mrs. Tillie Caldwell, Mrs. Lloyd Ewing, Mrs. Pearl Edson, William A. Edson, Mrs. E. M. Filmore, Mrs. Virgil Fish, Mrs. W. L. Hammon, Mrs. D. L. Jones, Mrs. Iva E. McElhinney, Mrs. Madge McElhinney, Mrs. Marian McElhinney, Mrs. Pearl McElhinney, Mrs. Zell McElhinney, Mrs. Harriet Pogemiller, Mrs. Isel Rouse, Mrs. Henry Stacy, Mrs. Mary Tippin, Mrs. William Walkinshaw, Mrs. E. H. Wilson, and J. C. Wylie.

Not to be forgotten are the "backers", who so generously provided the funds for the printing costs: Miss Mildred Baird, Paul Baird, Robert Baird, Rodman Baird, Work Carithers, Everett Cummings, Mrs. Meredith DeGood, Lloyd Edgar, Mrs. Virginia Johnson, Clyde McElhinney, Mrs. Iva E. McElhinney, Paul McElhinney, Mrs. Pearl McElhinney, Dr. W. W. McElhinney, Mrs. Vivian Paul, Dr. Margaret Robb, Mrs. Margaret Todd, and Lowry Willson.

Correlating the material, publishing arrangements, and typing of the final manuscript, was accomplished by Mrs. Meredith McElhinney DeGood.

To all these ---- and many many more ---- our sincerest appreciation!

Your Committee,

Work Carithers
Everett Cummings
Lloyd Edgar
